Posse will be hosting "Opioid Awareness Initiative Day," a three-day summit addressing the opioid epidemic that has affected so many of its residents. As the first event of its kind, R.I.P. Posse is hosting an "Anti-Opioid Awareness Summit" for the first time in an effort to address opioid abuse and address what the Oak Park Department of Planning and Development describes as "the growing epidemic that has impacted the quality of life for the residents of Oak Park." Oak Park was recently named by Newsweek as one of the 15 American cities in a "white flight" that the magazine says "are dealing with not only rising crime rates but also with the opioid crisis." The event will include presentations by Illinois State Senator Daniel Biss, the R.I.P. Posse's vice president and the 2016 nominee for the U.S. Senate, along with a number of other health care experts who have been identified as "frontline providers" combating the epidemic.
