Hello there, comrades! Long time no see! I'm glad to see you finally found your way here! I bet you're thinking 'is this game anything like communism?'. Indeed it is, but not in the way you're thinking. Communism is nice, and all - but we all know that, it's fair to say that communism is... boring. So let me introduce you to my game. A game that's a little more fun, a little more... um... what's the word I'm looking for...? Communist? Yes! That's it! Let me introduce you to AdVenture Communist. It's a new game, it's fun and I hope you enjoy it. And I'm sure you will. Anyone can play AdVenture Communist, we'll take care of you from the very beginning - whether you like it or not. The same goes to your farms, factories and technology - we'll help you through every stage. Whether you're a green potato farmer, a roaring capitalist or even a rebel worker. AdVenture Communist is a versatile game, and we love variety - so if you're looking for a niche game, then AdVenture Communist is the game for you. AdVenture Communist is free to play, you can sell your items in the pawn shop for some extra money and you can even buy some upgrades using our virtual money. Oh, don't worry - we don't care if you try to cheat the game, but if you get caught, we will take away all of your money and all of your items and block you from trying to play again until you are willing to pay us! I guess that's a bit much for you, huh? Well, I hope you understand. Speaking of cheating, yes, we do reward you for trying to cheat. When you get a few new cash items and get caught, we'll give you something special. You can buy an invincible worker that will keep on working forever! Just keep in mind that he's really quite useless - you can't move him, you can't attack him, and he doesn't learn anything. At the end of the day, he's a free way to get a few things and the rest is up to you, but if you want to try, you can get some deadly stuff from him! Some hints! You can click and drag your mouse to move your little characters around
